Thank you for your interest in becoming a member of the Jonesborough Storytellers Guild. We have two kinds of active participation membership – Performing and Supporting. Everyone joins at the Supporting Member level. Both groups of members are important and essential to the operation and success of our Guild.

Supporting Members do not tell stories in JSG venues or at official JSG events.

Supporting Member Privileges and Obligations

- ✓ Attend meetings and exercise voting rights
- ✓ Hold offices and serve on committees and special projects
- ✓ Free admission as listener to regular weekly performances*
- ✓ May bring spouse/partner or one guest to regular weekly performances

Any Supporting Member who wishes to go forward as an Apprentice and then to Performing Member of the guild should refer to the “Steps to Becoming a Performing Member of the Jonesborough Storytellers Guild” (listed as a separate form on our web site).

Performing Members are available to tell on a regular basis in the Guild’s public performance venues and special events. They comply with the policies/code of conduct as outlined in the Guild’s Performing Member Guidelines.

Performing Member Privileges and Obligations

- ✓ Attend meetings and exercise voting rights
- ✓ Hold offices and serve on committees and special projects
- ✓ Free admission as listener to regular weekly performances*
- ✓ May bring spouse/partner or one guest to regular weekly performances

*Free admission is for regular weekly performances only. Special events require regular admission fee unless attending as a performer or worker.
